PRESS RELEASE

Dow University participates in Karachi Youth Festival 2012

KARACHI: 13th November 2012: Under the auspice of Sindh Youth Affairs Department, Government of Sindh, a 4-day Karachi Youth Festival 2012 was held from 12th November to 15th November, 2012 at Art Council of Pakistan Karachi.

The Karachi Youth Festival 2012 is organized by Sindh Youth Affairs in collaboration with Art Council of Pakistan Karachi to provide youth a platform where they can show their talent. There were many competition which includes Debate Competition, Bait Bazi Competition, Theater Competition, Photography Competition, Short Film Competition, Textile/Fashion Designing, Battle of the Band, Painting Competition, singing Competition, calligraphy Competition, quiz Competition etc.

Dow Medical College, a constituent institution of Dow University of Health Sciences participated in the Karachi Youth Festival. Sadia Hameed, 4th year Student of Dow Medical College participated in Urdu Debate Competition and won the 3rd prize in the competition. She also received Shield, Certificate and Cash prize from Governor of Sindh, Dr. Ishrat Ul Ebad Khan.